Alpine 4th of July

Parade & Festival

You Can Be in the Parade!

The parade will be stepping off from West Victoria at 10am and proceed down Alpine Boulevard to Tavern Road. The festival will be held right after the parade in the Alpine Community Center Park. It will include game booths, a jumpy house, a live band, food and more. There will also be room for vendors to help support this celebration. This is an old fashion hometown Festival. Local organizations are encouraged to have game and refreshment booths for their profit.

Parade Entry Rules

Everyone is invited to participate in the Alpine 4th of July parade. The only requirement is that your entry be decorated with red, white and blue. Participants will meet at the Alpine Woman's Club parking lot at 9am. Line up for the parade entries is on Victoria Drive. The Parade will step off at 10am and march west down Alpine Boulevard to Tavern Road. Following the parade everyone is invited to join in the festival at the Alpine Community Center Park.

Please note: For safety reasons there will be no tossing of candy or other items from the parade entries. Entry deadline June 29, 2018
